BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Bernard Straile

Dr. Bernard Straile, BS, DC, is the chief clinician at the Total Wellness Center in Syracuse, NY, the CEO of BioGen Technologies Inc and President of the Board of SmartHealth Inc. He earned his Doctor of Chiropractic degree from New York Chiropractic College in 1994, building on his academic foundation in mathematics and psychology from his native Germany.

Dr. Straile has authored numerous articles, newspaper columns, and books on natural and alternative health. He is highly skilled in Diversified Chiropractic, Bioenergetic Therapies, Applied Kinesiology, Acupressure, and Natural Medicines.

Dr. Straile specializes in allergy elimination, immune enhancement, drug-free pain relief, and epigenetic modulation of genomic mutations. His innovative clinical methods address complex health challenges by pioneering a bioenergetic approach to wellness—working at the cellular level to interface with the genome.

As the founder of the SHOW Method, an epigenetic healing technique operating at the cellular level, Dr. Straile developed the IMAET system which is an innovative bioenergetic communication technology. He also serves on the Board of Directors of SmartHealth Inc., a 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to researching the SHOW Method's clinical effectiveness and advancing true preventive care.

Dr. Straile knows that the application of AI into the IMAET Bioenergetic Technology will catapult Bioenergetics to the forefront of smart and effective Wellness Care.

In addition to managing his busy clinic in Central NY, Dr. Straile educates health professionals and energy practitioners worldwide on the clinical applications of bioenergetics.
